

Papa for Employers

Support the people that support you—with high-quality, human help from our friendly Papa Pals.

Papa offers flexible family care to assist employees with caring for aging or ill loved ones, children, or themselves. Our curated national network of Papa Pals lighten the second (or third) shift load, and help you attract and retain happy, healthy, and productive employees.

Family care that flexes to you.

Your team can trust our highly trained and vetted Papa Pals anytime and anywhere a little help could go a long way.

Backup care and assistance with homework, snacks, meals, and playtime.

Help with errands, light housework, or pets.

Companionship, transportation, and more for aging or ill loved ones near and far.

57%

of caregivers report significant levels of stress, anxiety, or depression.¹

73%

of employees have some type of current caregiving responsibility.²

80%

of caregivers feel their work is affected by their responsibilities.²

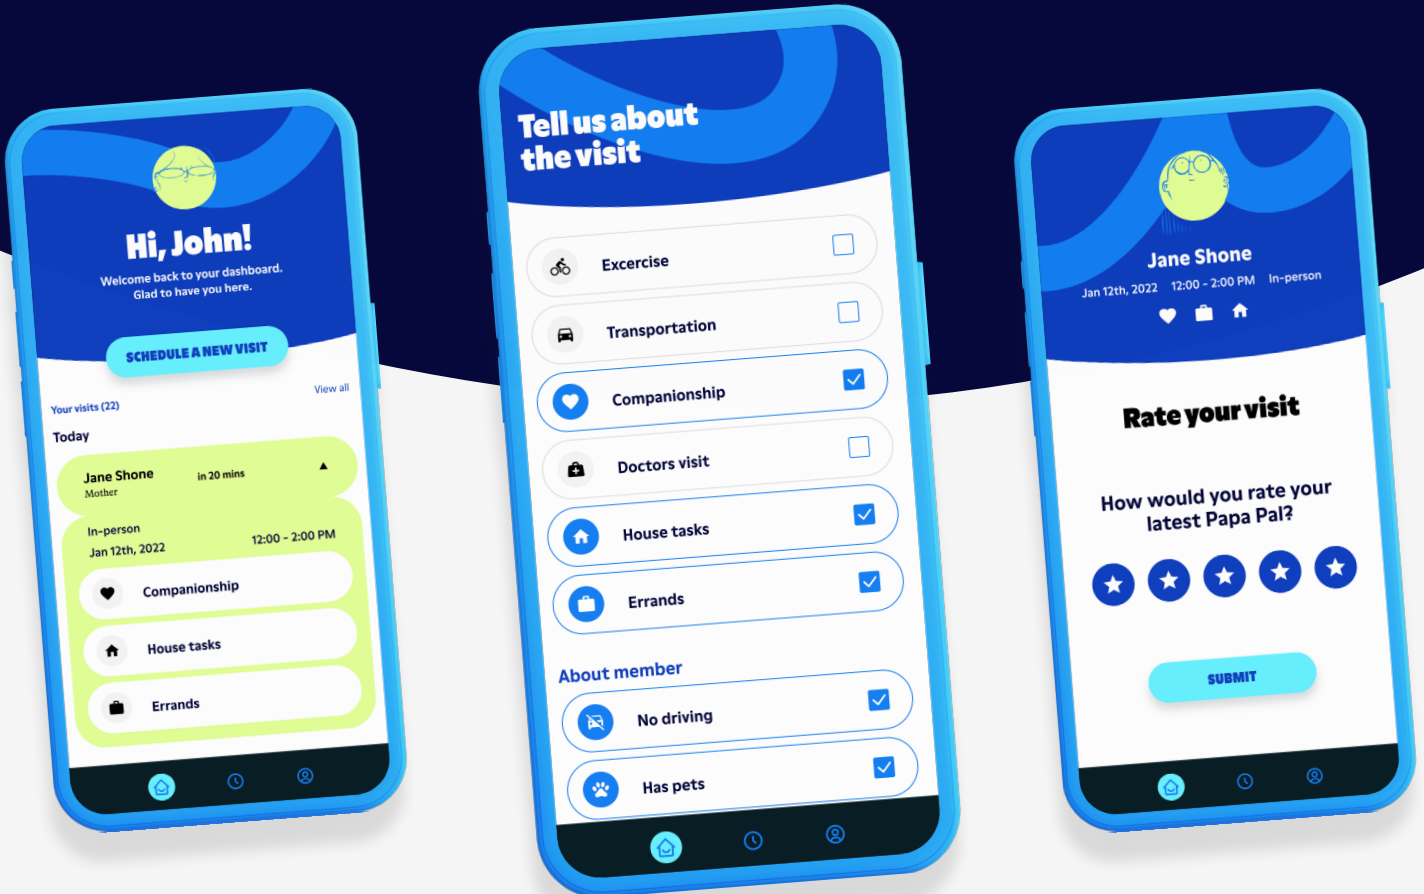

¹ BlueCross BlueShield

² Harvard Business School

Need a friendly face for your faraway parent? Have a pet with a passion for walks? Tired of scrambling for backup child care?

Friendly help when, where, and how it's needed.
Real humans, accessible through a web platform.

Employees receive a link to sign up online.

We match them with Papa Pals, based on their needs.

Employee feedback and data drive continuous enhancements.

Discover why leading employers partner with Papa to increase productivity, enhance well-being, and support a changing workforce.